

Lawmaker Hits Security Leaks

Rep. Melvin R. Laird (R., Wis.) said President Johnson failed to protect the national security properly when he revealed the existence of the supersonic A-11 aircraft. Laird said he would insist on an immediate review by the House Appropriations Committee of what classified information is made public.